Workamping 101: How to Get Your First Workamper Job

taught by Jaimie Hall Bruzenak

Workamping 101 is a homestudy course that walks you through the process of finding a Workamper or volunteer position for the first time.

Looking for a Workamper job can be overwhelming, so many choices! Choices are good, but how do you sift through the hundreds of possibilities and find the ones that will be good for you?

Some people grab the first job offer and end up in an unhappy situation. Others procrastinate until choices are fewer and their best choices are already filled. Don't let that happen to you. Instead, you can use a tried and true process for identifying employers that are a match and then go after those plum positions.

That's the goal of "Workamping 101: How to Get Your First Workamper Job." We'll walk you step-by-step through the process of getting your first job or finding a better job if you haven't quite found what you like.

In six sessions, Workamping 101 Homestudy Course will guide you through the process. By completing each step in the course, you'll be all set for the interview for the jobs you have selected. This course was recorded in October and November, 2011 so uses real-time examples and upt-to-date resources to illustrate the process.

Benefits:

- •Find a job that is match for you
- • Make the money you need and want to make
- • Find a job in the area you want to be in
- • Consider Workamping options you might have overlooked that are fun or pay more
- • Learn a process you'll use each time you want to find a job or volunteer opportunity

In addition, you'll

- • Write your Workamper resume
- • Take a look at the Awesome Applicant from the employer point-of-view
- • Have the tools to find high-paying jobs, if that's what you focus on
- • Research several employers
- • Develop questions for your interview
- • Learn how to juggle job offers when you get more than one!

Don't wait! Get started now so you have your summer position lined up. If you are looking at positions for later on, you'll be able to identify employers, research them and get a head start on everyone else.

Who should take this: Workampers looking for their first job or to get a better job

When: Available now. The beauty of a homestudy course is that you progress at your own pace and can refer to the videos for 90 days. You can save all course materials on your own computer or refer to Jaimie's Moodle site again and again.

Where: In the comfort of your own RV or home, in your pjs, if you wish!

Cost: Only $179, which includes all six recorded sessions, complete with worksheets, handouts and several bonuses.

The course is taught by Jaimie Hall Bruzenak and offered through Workamper University. You can read more detail and sign up at Workamper University.